FAREWELL TOAST TO COL. JOHNSON

Compliments Passed to Retiring Of-ficer—High Praise Offered for Col. J. W. Jones.

The farewell banquet tendered to Col. Sam Johnson at the Pacific Club-last evening was marked by most fe-licitous remarks for the leaders of the National Guard of the Territory. Col. Johnson was become Johnson was honored with many com-pliments and the members of the Guard as well as Major Dunning, in command of the regular army troops at Fort Shafter, paid an especial trib-Lieutenant Colonel Campbell in replying to the toast of "The President of the United States," spoke of the various Presidents from Washington's time to the present, closing his remarks with a high tribute to the many qualities of President Roosevelt.

Major Dunning in reply to the toast "The Army," outlined in a brief and pointed manner the study and hard work required of the army officer and the state of preparedness of the army to respond to any call made upon it, been effected by the n te to the good work of Col. Jones.

to respond to any call made upon it, calling attention to the necessity of having a strong and efficient National Guard to assist the regular service in making a strong first line of defense in case of war.

Major Dunning said: I consider his an appropriate time to say some-hing of interest to the officers of the Guard. The work of Colonel Jones is well known to and he has been observed by some of the highest officers of the United States Army and he is very well thought of. Their opinion best expressed in the statement of eneral McArthur to me, which I will

General McArthur to me, which I will try to repeat the way he said it. He said: Colonel Jones is a most excel-lent and capable ojcer and in the event of war ought to be given com-mand of a Volunteer Regiment. Licutenant Colonel Cooper made a few appropriate remarks on the sub-ject "The Guest of the Evening," re-ferring to the energy displayed by Col. Johnson in his work in the Na-tional Guard and in the various mat-ters of civil life that he was called ters of civil life that he was called upon to perform, raying that he had evidently set his mark high in order to have accomplished so much. ave accomplished so much.

Colonel Johnson in response said that the lives of men were marked by events in those lives, and that he looked upon this dinner as an event in his life to which he should always k back with a great deal of feel

Colonel Jones in responding to the toast "The National Guard," spoke of the necessity of emulating the regular service in order to approximate the re-quirements of the War Department, and the necessity for careful prepara-tion in administration, discipline and drill in order that the Guard might be ready to do its part when called upon. Captain Simpson, the chaplain, spoke very feelingly to the toast "The Lieutenant Colonel Short and Cap tain M. M. Johnson both spoke to the toast "The Commissary," Captain Johnson winding up his remarks by proposing the toast to "The officer whom we officers all know has done nore to bring the National Guard to ts present condition of efficiency, and who has done more for the Guard than any other officer, who has worked day and night, year in and year out for the betterment of the Guard—Colonel

Colonel Jones in response said that Colonel Jones in response said that if he had worked hard for the Guard his labors had been lightened many times by willing helpers among the officers, that it took hard work to accomplish anything in this life and the officers could well profit by the ex-ample of Colonel Johnson in his hard work for the guard.

Lieutenant Colonel Ziegier in responding to the toast "Reminiscences of 1895," recalled many incidents which has their humorous side, and closed by stating that both he and Lleutenant Colonel Coyne in those

It would astonish the public to know the number character and prominence of the people who are recovering from Bright's Disease and Diabetes in this city. To ascertain if permanent relief has been effected by the new treatment, as most all of the local cases that have been treated here are of comparatively recent date, the following wire was sent to California, where the new disretic-has been in use the past year or two:

Kansas City, Jan. 15, 1966,
R. A. CROTHERS, Proprietor Bulletin, San Francisco, Cal.

Several prominent citizens of Kansas City report wonderful recoveries from Bright's Disease and Diabetes by use of Fulton's Compound. Kindly advise us if successful and permanent results have been accomplished in your city.

In reply the following wire was received from the Evening Bulletin.

San Francisco, Jan. 16, 1906.

KANSAS CITY JOURNAL.

Permanent results here. Know a doctor who acknowledges absolute recovery from Diabetes. Many anthentic cures of Bright's.

These diseases were considered fatal. It is evident that not alone relief but a permanent can how be effected.

Kansas City Daily Journal.

If any one having knowledge of a case of Bright's Disease or Disbetes will see that they are sent full details of this important discovery. We sent for the treatment and have it in stock HONOLULU DRUG CO., Fort Street.

Tonight is set for the first presenta-tion of the "Man of the Hour" in Ho-nolulu. A dress rehearsal was had last night and everything was as sat-isfactory as if the members of the company were the very people them-selves. The several parts were all well taken, the costuming was the same as in the original cast and the stage effects good. Mr. Murphy was casy as the "Boss," and with Major Potter as Phelan these was major Potter as Phelan there was nothing left to the imagination. The ladies in the case were easy and it was not difficult for those in the audience to imagine them taken from life. There is no question about the success of is up on everything connected with

The Opera House should be full to night because of the play and because it is an opportunity to help the yacht fund. The money is needed and there are hundreds here in Honolulu who have not done their share toward bringing the Territory to the front in sports. Tickets are 50, 75 and one dollar at Wall, Nichols Co., Ltd.

SCHOLARS WILL DANCE

For the benefit of the School Athletic Association a garden fete will be given on the Oahu College grounds at 2 o'clock on Saturday, June 13. A very interesting program of songs and dances has been prepared for the occasion. The Spanish dance will be produced by six little maids atttired the national costume. Reynold McGrew and little Stella Center will dance and sing while Miss Margaret. another of Mrs. Center's clever little girls, will entertain the crowd with Tenney will render a few of the most popular songs.

The following lady friends of the school have consented to be patron-esses for the occasion: Mrs. F. J. Lowrey, Mrs. B. F. Dillingham, Mrs. J. A. Kennedy, Mrs. C. M. Cooke, Mrs. W. D. Alexander, Mrs. F. M. Swanzy, Mrs. P. C. Jones, Mrs. A. Judd. Mrs. S. B. Dole, Mrs. C. Atherton, Mrs. S. M. Damon, and Mrs. G. R. Carter.

HINDOOS FOR HAWAIT

VANCOUVER, B. C., May 28 .- De laring that they are unable to obain work in Vancouver, dozens of Hindoos are applying at Canadian Paeific ticket offices for information as o the rates of passage to Honolulu t is believed the few Hindoos who have strayed from Vancouver to the islands have found labor conditions here more to their liking than in British Columbia, and have sent back word to their complaining compatriots, urging them to go to Hono-lulu. In all probability a fairly large number of Hindoos will leave for that point on the next Canadian-Austra-
